

THREAT OF ARMOR PLATE BARONS IGNORED

PREPAREDNESS WAS FURTHER RECOMMENDED

BULLETIN
Washington, Feb. 8.—Senator La Follette today blocked an attempt to pass immediately the proposal making available at once $600,000 to equip the navy yards at New York and Mare Island, although Chairman Tillman asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.
"I think the matter of such importance that we should have a written report," said Senator La Follette, "and I object."

Washington, Feb. 8.—Private armor plate manufacturers notified the senate naval committee today that they would raise the price of armor plate $200 a ton if congress decides to erect or purchase armor plate factories for the government. The committee nevertheless voted to recommend government plants.

After a brief consideration the committee ordered favorably reported the bill authorizing expenditure of $300,000 to equip Mare Island navy yard for battleship construction and $100,000 to enlarge facilities of the New York navy yard. These two bills passed the house yesterday.

Senator Penrose, Republican, of Pennsylvania, notified the committee of the stand of the armor plate manufacturers those who are concerned being the Bethlehem and Midvale Companies. The committee voted nevertheless to report favorably. Senator Blount's bill to authorize the secretary of the navy to provide armor plate by erection or purchase of armor plate factory, or both, in capacity of not less than 2,000 tons of armor a year, the bill would appropriate $11,000,000. Senators Penrose, Lodge and Smith, of Michigan, Republican, voted against reporting the bill.

Chairman Tillman and Senators Swannom, Bryan, Johnson, of Maine, Chilton, Phelan and Bennett, Democrats, and Chappin, of Indiana, Republicans, voted for it.

"The threat of the armor barons to hold up the government will not affect congress," said Senator Tillman. "We were able to understand that the armor manufacturers would increase their price because government manufacture of armor plate would force them to go out of business and they would then this enormous increase in price to provide themselves with armorization fund. But we can find a way to stop them. In time of trouble we will seize their plants and give them by right of eminent domain."

Rejection of Senator Phelan's bill to consider his bill to appropriate $10,000,000 for construction of a naval and aviation base within 150 miles of San Francisco.

Other opponents of preparedness had a hearing before the public military committee.

Representatives of the National Grange, headed by L. J. Taber, of Barnesville, Ohio, opposed army and navy increases on the ground that they meant a burden of taxation that might really be a weapon in the hands of an enemy. He says the farmers were as patriotic as any other class of people and believed in efficient protection, but not in creating the greatest army and navy.

WHY GERMANIZE AMERICAN PEOPLE?

Washington, Feb. 8.—Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, retired, denounced the continental army before the house army committee today.

"It will be a very dangerous step toward centralization, that would put a tremendous power in some future president," he said.

"It is un-American. Why try to Germanize the American people? You cannot Germanize American citizens."

Washington, D. C., Feb. 8.—Germany's latest reply in the Lusitania negotiations was characterized as almost, if not entirely, acceptable to the United States by high officials today after Secretary Lansing had conferred with President Wilson more than an hour, and the case had been discussed at length at the cabinet meeting. The whole situation was described as "very hopeful".

Later today Secretary Lansing will confer with Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador. It is expected he will communicate to the Ambassador the American government's view of the latest proposal from Berlin, which was substituted for the word "illegal" in the reference to the sinking of the Lusitania. The view reflected by administration officials while all of them steadfastly refrained from making any definite announcement is that this declaration with the assurance Germany previously had been previously ill.

ARBOR DAY APRIL 7 DECREED BY GOVERNOR

Columbus, O., Feb. 8.—April 7th was proclaimed Arbor Day by Governor Willis today. He urged that it be observed by encouraging children to plant trees, study bird life and flowers.
"Man destroyed the balance of forces in nature which God established," said the proclamation issued by the Governor.
"It is now man's duty to aid in restoring that balance by restoring a portion of the forest arena and encouraging protecting bird life.
The proclamation is not sentimental but economical. Economically the state needs more forest trees on our streets and more equitable distribution of rainfall. More song and insectivorous birds will delight the eye and ear and make easier the work of the farmers and gardeners. Our boys and girls will be better through close relation with the elevating and refining influence of nature—the beauty of bird and leaf and flower."

AMERICAN DOCTOR BURNED, SHOT AND HIS HEAD CHOPPED OFF

Petrograd, Feb. 8.—Dr. Jacob Sargis, an American Methodist medical missionary, who has arrived in Petrograd after narrowly escaping death at the hands of the Turks and Kurds in Ushak, Persian Armenia, asserts that among the outrages committed against the Christian refugees was the burning to death of an American doctor named Simon or Shimmun, as he was known there. His identity was not further established, but the story of the outrage, as told by Dr. Sargis, was as follows:
"Dr. Shimmun was in the village of Supurghun when the Turks attacked that place. He was among those who took refuge on a mountain near the lakes. He was captured and told that since he had been a good doctor and had helped the wounded, they would not kill him but that he must accept the Mohammedan faith. He refused, as almost all Christians did. They poured oil on him, and, before applying the torch, they gave him another chance to forsake his religion. Again he refused and they set his clothes afire. After he fell to the ground unconscious they hacked his head off. Mr. Allen, an American missionary, who went from village to village burying the victims of this butchery, found the body of Shimmun half eaten by dogs.
"The Catholic mission there took 150 Christians of all sects and kept them in a small room and tried to save them, but at least forty-nine of them, among them one Bishop Dinkha of the Episcopal mission, were bound together one night, taken to Gagin Mountain and there shot down."

Skribner To Know His Fate Tomorrow

Columbus, O., Feb. 8.—Governor Willis spent several hours in his private office today studying the case of Peter Skribner, who is in the death cell at the penitentiary under sentence of electrocution Thursday midnight for the murder of a Toledo detective. The governor was inclined to believe, it was said, that inasmuch as Skribner was convicted on such clear circumstantial evidence and now apparently does not wish further reprieve, it would be unwise to commute his sentence.

Later today Governor Willis announced he would not give a decision in Skribner's case until tomorrow.

Billy Butt In Times Weather Man

One thing that gets my goat is this Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle stuff that some of the magazines and a lot of people seem to have gone flippin' over. There are some things that seem to be hopeless to try to explain and I guess 'The Castles' is one of 'em. Why folks wanta separate themselves from so much pain 't get a line on a few fancy hops and wiggles is beyond me. I pass and return to the weather. Here's for tomorrow.

THE NEWEST REMEDY FOR BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM AND DROPSY

Kidney, Bladder and Uric Acid troubles bring misery to many. When the kidneys are weak or diseased, these natural filters do not cleanse the blood sufficiently, and the poisons are carried to all parts of the body. There follow depression, aches and pains, heavy, lumpy, swollen joints, headache, dizziness, irritability, you ever get a little of these troubles, it is a warning that the kidneys are at fault. In some people there are heavy sediment or settling, sharp pains in the back and loins, urinary troubles, kidney troubles, distressing bladder disorders and the true nature and character of sometimes obstinate dropsy. The diseases, especially those of the uric acid sometimes forms into gravel or kidney stones. When either is determined by a careful and complete analysis and the uric acid affects the muscles, joints and it causes lameness, red examinations. THIN FOLKS TURN FOOD INTO FLESH

Report Weight Increases of Ten To Twenty-five Pounds When Sargol Was Taken With Daily Meals

If you are thin, rundown and under normal weight and would like to put on from ten to twenty-five pounds of good healthy flesh you must make your meals do you more good than they are doing now.

Flesh, fat and muscular tissue must come from the food you eat but if your organs of assimilation are defective and you lack the power to turn food into flesh and fat much of the good of your meals must leave your body as waste.

If you are ten pounds or more underweight try eating a Sargol tablet with every meal and take another just before going to bed and try to see if this is true in your case. Weigh yourself before you begin and each ten days thereafter. Do this for sixty days and note the difference. Don't guess at results. Let the scales tell their story. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds and even more from this plan are by no means infrequent. Yet the action is perfectly natural and entirely harmless.

Sargol is a splendidly balanced combination of assimilative aids designed to increase the nourishment you obtain from your food and so to make your food develop healthy fat, flesh and muscular tissue between your skin and bones. It can be obtained from the Fisher & Streich pharmacy or leading druggists everywhere and each large package contains a guarantee of satisfactory weight increase or money back on sixty days use.

Engineer Kinley also submitted a plan and estimate on the work of cutting down Gallia pike from West avenue to the west corporation line. There are 24,755 cubic yards of dirt to be moved at an estimated cost of $7,000. There is about $1800 on hand from the Harrisonville avenue improvement fund which will be used on the new work. Solicitor McCall was instructed to bring in legislation for the issuing of bonds to the amount of $6500 to cover the cost of the work.

A motion was passed increasing the salary of the engineer from $100 per month to $125 per month. Member Harr being the only one opposed to the increase. Harr reported that the alley on the east of the town hall should be paved, as the alley is used as the main driveway for the auto fire truck. The street committee was ordered to take up the matter of paving with the adjoining property owners.

The work of replacing a foot bridge and repairing of sidewalks on Columbia street was referred to the street committee. They will also take up the matter of placing a light on Columbia street and repair other walks about town.

Council adjourned to meet Friday evening at seven o'clock when the matter of garbage, light and light trucking bids will be considered.

Member Harr reported that the street committee had looked over the matter of building a vault to house the village documents and that such a structure would cost about $100. The committee was instructed to go ahead with the work. Clerk Thomas O'Neal, of the school board, reported that the school board would stand one-third of the cost.

Bids for the hauler of garbage, the job of light tender and street commissioner were rejected after a long discussion. It was decided to reject all bids as several bids had been lost by the clerk and as it was not legal to advertise for the job of street commissioner, such an office being filled by appointment.

An ordinance was passed approving the taking and collecting of the census of the village, which has a population of 3224.

Engineer Kinley reported that the construction of a sanitary sewer on Gallia street would mean the closing of private property and that some understanding would have to be had with the property owners. The ing for council to authorize him to go ahead with the work of giving

Why There's A Time Limit

You've seen the kind of sale that goes on and on, without any limit, as long as there seems to be any interest in it. Sometimes it looks as if the merchant kept on buying stock for the express purpose of continuing his sale.

But this isn't that kind of a sale. We set a definite time in which to sell certain goods. When that time is up the sale is over.

If there should be anything left, it goes right back in stock at the regular price. But it doesn't look as if much would be left, judging by the last few days.

People appreciate value, and they're getting it here.

Have you accepted the opportunity? Plenty of time till Saturday, but you've heard "the early bird" story.

George Wood Anderson Great Evangelist, Says T. D. Bendure

Columbus, O., Feb. 8, 1916.
The Portsmouth Times.
Harold and Taylor.

Gentlemen and Friends:
I have read the article "An Initiation Billy Sunday in Columbus," published in your paper last week. I want to say to you and your readers that this account is positively unfair and unwarranted by the facts.

I am a Billy Sunday admirer; lead him in most of his evening and Sabbath work and believe him to be the greatest living evangelist—a pioneer in the tabernacle campaign and unique in his methods. Sam Jones was great, chapman and Gypsy Smith, great,
each in his own peculiar way—each denouncing sin wherever sin is found, but because each called sin by the "family" name he was never accused of imitating the other. George Wood Anderson has been a successful minister in some of the largest churches in Ohio—the facts are, Anderson's capacity is too large for Ohio's largest church, no church would hold the people he attracts, hence the "Tabernacle plan". Of course, in such a plan, the organization of each cannot differ much from the other; but in a number of ways the Anderson organization is better than Sunday's. In his first sermon Anderson asked that he be not compared with Billy Sunday —declared that he is not, nor could he be Billy Sunday—thus there is but one Billy Sunday, and that he is the greatest evangelist of the world—Said I am just George Anderson and could not successfully be any one else if I wanted to. I have heard him in every week night and Sunday service of this campaign and declare to you that I fail to recall occasion when I detected an effort to imitate Sunday.

He is dramatic, as are most successful evangelists—but Anderson is dramatic in his own way. He is educated, refined, earnest and religious. He is unselfish, sensible, practical and uncompromising with sin, whether found in the pew or the penitentiary. He may not attract so many curious people because he does not stand on his head, nor tear his shirt, nor drink out of a bucket. He may not tickle the world because he does not call the preachers "monkeys", nor the church members "yellow dogs", and "Bald Headed Devils" as did one evangelist—not Sunday. But only eternity will reveal the thoroughness of the work of George Wood Anderson—and its mighty results.

To my knowledge there has not been a word of criticism of the Anderson campaign except from those who are not in sympathy with such work. The Sunday converts are among the most active of our workers—they do not see any effort to imitate Sunday.

Of course, people whose questionable pleasures are punctured, whose crooked lives are bound-up, whose unrighteous works are denounced by the evangelist, seem to enjoy striking back—in this campaign as in the Sunday campaign. But in the Sunday campaign all the city and county and a large part of the state had a more or less active interest in the work and every "knock" was looked upon as the result of a "bump" by Billy in the right place.

In the Anderson campaign only one-fourth of the city is actively interested and the "knockers" are given greater credit and publicity by the disinterested three-fourths of the city and outside people—because they have not seen nor heard the evangelist and of course do not know.

"Comparisons are odious", but because they have been drawn, I would call attention to a few comparative facts. In the first five weeks of the Anderson campaign, the entire tabernacle expense, which amounted to three-fourths of that of the Sunday campaign has been cleared up and $100 left. This, in exactly the same length of time by one-fourth of the city. In five weeks twenty-six hundred cards of consecration and re-consecration have been signed in one-fourth of the city—multiply this by four, for the entire city and the record is higher than the Sunday record at the end of the fifth week. In this revival the average attendance for Sundays and week nights has been above forty-five hundred.
Multiply this by four and you would have, for the entire city an average of eighteen thousand—not approached in the Sunday work in Columbus.

Consider also, the prestige that naturally goes with a great sweeping general movement and remember that this being a local campaign, is robbed of that advantage. Remember also that the Sunday meeting was the first great enveloping wave of reform that has struck this city in twenty years, since the days when Munhall preached to great congregations, filling the skating rink, which covered a single city lot.

George Wood Anderson has been in this special work exactly one year, on the day he leaves Columbus.

You could not convince twenty thousand people of the north side that any other living evangelist could follow Sunday to Columbus, and within four years of his marvelous success, make such a record in soul saving as has Dr.
George Wood Anderson.

Every earnest member of every North Side church and all the pastors of these churches will endorse every statement in this article.

Very truly yours,
T. D. BENDURE,
1355 Denison Avenue,
Columbus, Ohio.

WEAK FROM GRIPPE

Home Missionary Tells How She Restored Her Strength

"I am a Home Missionary, was weak and run-down after a hard spell of La Grippe. I had headaches, indigestion and pains in my chest, and was tired all the time.
A friend asked me to try Vinol and the result is I am free from these troubles and I feel well and strong and able to go to work again." Mrs. Hattie Johnson, Towanda, Pa.

The reason Vinol was so successful in building up Mrs. Johnson's health is because it is a constitutional remedy which contains peptonate of iron to enrich and revitalize the blood, the nourishing properties of beef peptone and the healing medicinal extractives of fresh, healthy cod's livers, all combined in a delicious native tonic wine, without oil.

We wish every person in Portsmouth who is suffering from a weakened, run-down, devitalized condition, would try our Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benefit them.

mouth, O.

GIRLS---DO YOU KNOW WHY YOUR HAIR IS UGLY?

Many women desire to have their hair soft, clean, and free from dandruff.
And yet with such a few minutes of time massage the hair may be brought to a beautiful, thick, lustrous luxuriance and that at very little cost.
Just try these few simple directions today. Take the palm of the hand and a little Parisian Sage, a richly aromatic, thick, lustrous and most beautiful preparation to be had in any drug store, thoroughly wet the hair near the scalp with water and then rub vigorously until a soft tingling sensation comes over the head. Do this regularly for a few days and you will surely be surprised and delighted with the results.
The genuine Parisian Sage is obtainable from J. C. Fisher and Son, who always will give you an absolutely guarantee of perfect satisfaction for the use of the money paid will be refunded.

MUTT AND JEFF CERTAINLY, A FELLOW HAS GOT TO GET SOME SLEEP BY BUD FISHER

Scoop Interviews A Doctor On "Grippe Prevention" By "HOP"

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, weas, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, N. H. Office Phone 80.

Dear Dolly—I have had the grip and am about over it, only I have no appetite for anything. Please tell me something that would be good for my appetite, for about one meal a day it all I eat. Thanking you in advance.

X. Y. Z.
You might ask your physician to prescribe a good tonic for you. However, I think your appetite will gradually come back when you have gotten over the grip. In the meantime you might have your folks cook some appetizing viands and see if you will not be tempted to eat them.

Miss Dolly Wise—When a fellow comes to see a girl, and when she starts home, should she go to the door with him, if she is well acquainted, or should she just stay where she is? BROWN EYES.
She should go to the door with him.

Stout, O.—Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl of 18 years and am coming to you for advice. Is Pearl, a boy's name, spelled any different than a girl's name? If it is, please tell me how to spell it?
R. A. S.
They are spelled the same. Some girls spell their name Pearl, or Pearline.

Dear Miss Wise—Please explain through your column how the date of Easter is regulated. I know it comes on a different date every year, but don't know how it is fixed.

WEST END READER

Easter day is always the first Sunday after the full moon, which happens upon or next after the 21st of March, and if the full moon happens on a Sunday, Easter day is the Sunday after. There is also an old saying by which Easter day may be found: "First comes Candlemas (Feb. 2) and then the new moon; that moon out and the next moon's full, and the Sunday after is Easter day."

Dear Dolly—Would you please tell me what would be nice to serve at a Valentine party. Should just the hostess receive valentines, or send them to one another? And tell us some nice games to play.

THREE CHUMS

You could serve dainty sandwiches, a salad, coffee and candy, or cream, cake and coffee or chocolate. Have a Valentine box and let each guest contribute a Valentine or two. Usually a hat box or some other kind of a box is used. Tie the lid on and then cut a hole large enough to slip the lid. The box can be decorated with hearts and red crepe paper. At an appropriate time the hostess, or one of the guests opens the box and reads the verses therein aloud. This causes much merriment, especially if some of the Valentines are of the comic variety.

SOCIETY

The Progress Club held an interesting meeting last evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Rockwell, on Eighth street, where Miss Linnie Heid was the assisting hostess. There were twelve members present. The program follows:

Life of William Dean Howells—Miss Marie Musser.

Career and Achievements of William Dean Howells—Miss Anna Threlwell.

Reading, Their First Quarrel—Miss Flora Hewitt.

Music—Miss Nannie Foley.

Mrs. Cartwright was present and gave a talk on Social Purity. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Blanche Stokely, who will be assisted by Misses Lenora McNamara, Linnie Heid, Nello Gard, Mrs. Nellie Tenor, all members of the executive committee. Dainty refreshments followed the program.

The Dalton Auction Bridge Club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Miss H. Anderson. Miss Pauline Wilhelm and Mrs. Howard Wilhelmson played in the places of the absent ones.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Manly church will meet in business and social session Thursday afternoon with Mrs. G. D. Jenkins, 1834 Robinson avenue. The hostesses will be Mesdames G. D. Jenkins, J. W. Jordan, J. D. Jordan, E. M. Jennings, G. W. Johnson and John F. Ray.

The Hamilton White Club was entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jim Poodles. Miss Samuel M. Johnson was the only guest. Refreshments followed the program. Mrs. L. C. Farley will be hostess at the next meeting.

Four bright young women, members of Mr. Rogers' St. Paul's Sunday school class of Bowdoin church, have formed a Brass Band of four pieces. Miss Sue Reid plays the valve trombone; Miss Edith Leighton, the baritone horn; Mrs. M. C. Conwell, the euphonium; and Miss Edith Roberts, the tuba. Mrs. M. C. Conwell was the teacher. These young women have learned to play the brass instruments during the past year in the Sunday school. Their first public performance will be given at the meeting of the Bowdoin Young People's Association, where they rendered excellent service.

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary unsifted coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multiplied coconut oil at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Hair Often Ruined By Washing With Soap

One could develop this style very effectively in some of the overalls with plain silk or crepe in a contrasting or matched color for the guimpes. In black with velvet with white or pale blue satin for the guimpes it would make a nice best dress. Tulle, poplin, repp, linen, men's velvety, cashmere or tulle are also nice. The guimpes of boleros, tunics, lawn or crepe. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. It requires for the guimpes 15 yards of 27-inch material, and 12 yards for the dress for a 10-year size.

A pattern of this illustration, mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

CAUTION—Order adult patterns by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

This pattern will be sent on receipt of 10 cents. Make no label, name, address, etc., plain. Send to Pattern Department, Portsmouth Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

The Portsmouth Reading Club held one of the most interesting meetings of this year last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Tremper. The program included the Constitutional Spotlight by Mr. C. M. Seal, and as Mrs. Tremper had the "Tremper Mount Relics" as her subject, she sent to Columbus to Prof. Mills, who sent her slide pictures of the relics taken from the Tremper mound, and with Rev. Mr. Denning's slide machine, the pictures were thrown on canvas and were most interesting and instructive. Mr. Paul Eschborn, who is well up on mound relics, gave a good description of each slide. Mr. and Mrs. Eschborn and Mrs. Eschborn's mother, Mrs. Frederick Downing, of Redville, Va., were the only guests. Mrs. Alice Higgins, who passed away yesterday, was one of the charter members of the club, and action was taken on her death, although she has not been an active member for several years. Mr. R. H. Dillon sent a number of Indian relics, which were most interesting and entirely different from those pictured in the slides. The meeting ended with delicious refreshments.

The program of the Ladies' Musical Evening Recital will be presented by David and Clara Mannes, violinist and pianist, who have been appearing each musical season in a series of musical recitals in the important cities of the United States and Canada. Mr. Mannes is musical director of the Music School Settlement in East Third street, New York City. He says:

"True art is the expression of all mankind. The Music School Settlement would be just as effective up town—I mean with the children of well-to-do parents. It is not a movement for poor people only. It is for all the world. It is for everybody, just as religion is. And as true religion acknowledges no social barriers, so art that is true to itself has never made this distinction. And we want to make it very much purer until such work as ours, and work like it, shall be incorporated in the public schools."

"I would wish that after regular school hours, every public school might be turned into a center for the teaching of music, painting, sculpture, arts and crafts, or anything else that is useful. One sits in the street-cars and hears men and women talking of stocks and bonds, of clothes and everything but the things that they are supposed to have learned, and when they have amassed money, they cannot express themselves in anything that is of real value to themselves or to humanity."

"The world was created for the child, and every child should be given the means of self-expression. Because a person learns to sew, shall she therefore become a seamstress? Or because a boy learns to fiddle, must this necessarily be his life-work? Imagination is a universal need; the business man needs it; the greatest engineers are those whose imagination is awake. This cannot be stimulated by a common school education. We must strike out and make our public educators awake to the fact that the work done in the schools should pay a human interest on the vast human capital expended."

David and Clara Mannes, whose sonata recitals for the violin and piano have become recognized features of the musical season of New York, Boston and Chicago, have always been known as innovators in something new and worth while and this season the most talked of novelty is the new Ascension Sonata by Cecil Burrell, a young American composer. This new work depicts the life of the Savior from the manger to the cross and also the resurrection and ascension. Devotees of chamber music in this vicinity will be delighted to know that Mr. and Mrs. Mannes will appear here.

Miss Cledine Dunn, who has been visiting relatives and friends here the past few weeks, left Monday for Blackfield, W. Va., for a few days' visit before returning to her home in Glade Springs, Va.

Mrs. Henry H. Smith's class of girls, the G. G. C. of the Second Presbyterian Sunday school held a delightful meeting Saturday evening at Mrs. Smith's home. There were twenty-three out of twenty-six present. The motto, "We Are Glad" was fully demonstrated by an enjoyable time, all taking a part. After the business part was over, rendered by Miss Margaret Stabler and Miss Madeline Keane. The story of Ruth was read by Miss Dorothy Nutter. In a contest, "The Blooming Yarn," Miss Mildred Brown won the favor, a pretty valentine. The decorations were hearts and valentines in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her daughter, Miss Clarence Nader, and Miss Pearl Foster.

Miss Bessie Outlin will entertain the Evening Kensington Club with a Valentine party this evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Revare on Baind avenue.

BOY SCOUT ANNIVERSARY AND STUNT NIGHT TO BE CELEBRATED TONIGHT AT 1ST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The second attraction of Boy Scout Anniversary Week was a meeting of the First Class Fraternity last night at Boys' Headquarters. The chief business of this meeting was the selection of officers for the coming year. The following scouts will serve in this capacity as the result of last night's election:

Curtis Bellamy—President.
Corwin Knowles—Vice President.

Harry W. Wagner—Secretary.
Howard Moritz—Treasurer.

It would have been difficult to have made a better selection, as every officer elected is a real leader in his particular troop. Scout Bellamy, the new president, is an Eagle Scout, and leads in the number of merit badges won by local scouts. He is a member of Troop 3. Scout Corwin Knowles, the new vice president, is one of the "live wires" of the East End. The new secretary is possibly the most popular scout and scout worker in the city. Harry W. Wagner, who is also Mr. Kinsey's secretary at Boy Scout Headquarters, and knows more scouts than any other member in the city. He also leads from Troop 3. The newly elected treasurer, Howard Moritz, is one of the new members of the fraternity, and a patrol leader in Troop 2. He is one of the most popular members of the fraternity.

With such an efficient corps of officers, the First Class Fraternity, the coming year should enjoy its most successful season. Another feature at last night's meeting was the reading of the annual report of the fraternity, which was very interesting. It showed that Portsmouth First Class Scouts had won a total of 319 Merit Badges. Curtis Bellamy leads with a total of 35. Arthur Doll of Troop 3 comes second with 30. Russell Williams, of Troop 2, has won 25. Clyde Walker, of Troop 9 also with 19. Other members have won badges all the way from one up to 12. Scout Carl Walker read a very interesting history of the fraternity, which was well received by the members. No other scout in this organization has "boosted" or worked any harder than Walker. He believes in the "frat" with all his heart. Scout Corwin Knowles gave a short talk: "Echoes from our Great Meeting Sunday", which was a very interesting account of the great mass meeting held on last Sunday. Scout Executive Kinsey gave a very helpful talk on the subject: "Why the Scout Movement Has Succeeded".

The fraternity then adjourned and the members went in a body to see the play, "The Melting Pot", which was very appropriate to the occasion, being a patriotic one.

The First Class Fraternity is an organization of the highest scouts in the city, a rank which is very difficult to reach. This is proven by the fact that out of a membership of 500 Boy Scouts in the city, the Fraternity has only 20 members. They are: Russell Williams, Curtis Bellamy, Harry O. Davidson, Harry Wagner, Robert Snapp, Arthur Doll, Harry Doll, Odell Baker, Carl Walker, Howard Shenaker, Emil Cook, Corwin Knowles, Marion Garrison, Howard Moritz, Denver Scott, Benson Ogier, Ralph Mohl, Richard Knost, John Schlichter and Harold Dunn.

The Fraternity will soon have a new member in the person of Scout Charles Baker, who has his application in for membership.

Tonight's program will possibly be the biggest of the week, being Anniversary Night and "Stunt Night" combined. The exercises will start promptly at 6:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Bible School Auditorium. The first number will be several stands pretty high up in the list of moving pictures. This will be followed with a musical program by the Campfire Girls, and then the taking of the oath by all scouts present. It has been arranged at National Headquarters to have every Scout in the United States to stand at attention and take the oath at the same time. Then comes the reading of the Annual Message of the President of the Boy Scouts, Colin H. Livingston. This will be read by Howard W. Graf, after which Judge T. C. Beatty will give the boys a short talk. The closing feature of the evening's program will be two fast basketball games, being the regularly scheduled games of the Boy Scout League. The East Enders meet their old rivals, the Tigers in the first game, and the second game will be between the "Eagles" and the "Cougars".

All Scouts who are registered will be admitted, and all parents of Scouts are given a cordial welcome.

He has found the way, and he wants to share it with you. He will send you a full and complete description of his cure, and how you can get it, for nothing. He will also send you a list of the names of the doctors who have cured him, and the names of the hospitals where he has been treated. of railroad life by Frank Spearman.

This is without any doubt the best and most thrilling railroad story ever shown in motion pictures. Each succeeding chapter is better and more thrilling than the preceding chapter, and the best of all is that each chapter of this great story is intensely interesting, and even if you didn't see the preceding chapters you will heartily enjoy this one. In addition to "The Girl and the Game" two good reels of comedy pictures will be shown.

Have you been seeing the "Triangle" pictures at the Columbia every Monday and Thursday? If not, you have been missing the greatest pictures ever shown in Portsmouth. On Thursday of this week the "Triangle" program is one of the best shown so far. You will see "The Coward," a five part civil war drama, featuring Frank Keenan, one of America's greatest actors. And in addition to this drama you will laugh yourself hoarse at "Fatty" Arbuckle and his assistants in the two-part Keystone comedy entitled "Fickle Patsy's Fall." Just come and see one "Triangle" program and you will be looking forward to every Monday and Thursday, which are the Triangle days at the popular Columbia.

"Should a Wife Forgive?" the next release on the Equitable program at the Lyric theatre, has developed in this wonderful screen production an entirely different phase of her dramatic ability from that which brought her stage fame as a star in several New York productions. The story is full of tense situations, and has a plot in which love, intrigue, recklessness, disaster, remorse and the righteous indignation of a wronged wife, follow each other in a series of wonderfully beautiful scenes, full of thrilling action. The stage settings are far beyond those of the ordinary screen play in realism, and the absorbing story is presented in a manner in which will fasten a grip on both the heart and mind of every one who sees it.

"Stingaree" At The Majestic Tonight

Tonight we have the third series of stories about the Australian bushranger entitled "The Black Hole of Glenrannald," by E. H. Hornung, author of "Raffles," played by the most beloved woman who has ever appeared on the Temple theatre screen. Perhaps one actress whose supreme art defies criticism, is bound to send you home absorbed, fascinated and delighted. The third picture is an Essanay production entitled "The Fable of the Tip and the Treasure." The fourth is a Vitaphone production entitled "The Lesson of a Narrow Street." What gambling in Wall street does to a man is strongly impressed upon a young artist. He learns his lesson and much happiness results. Admission 5 and 10c.

Three Reel 101 Bison Jungle Picture At The Strand Tonight

"The Lion's Ward" is a wild animal thriller. Betty Schade and Paul Bourgeois enact principal roles in Bison three-reel

With Mr. Blinn and Miss Martin in the picture there are also such fine artists as George Ralph, June Elvidge, John Hines, thus making the cast of principals exceptionally strong and attractive. Miss Martin and Miss Elvidge are two of the most beautiful women now appearing in pictures.

The story concerns itself with the matrimonial adventures of a successful business man and his young wife, Peggy, who after the honeymoon becomes unhappy because hubby neglects her. And in that mood she is ready to listen to the pleadings of a friend of her husband, who wants her to elope with him.

But, notwithstanding the equivocal position in which she is placed Peggy is loyal to her husband. Still you cannot play with fire and remain unhurt; and if you touch pitch you are bound to be defiled.

The result of Peggy being frequently seen in compromising circumstances with Collingwood, the lover, is that her husband divorces her.

But a reconciliation is effected between them. Before this consummation is reached, however, there are many striking happenings in this photoplay which, among other sensations, has a terrible and terrifying theatre fire scene; this scene provides the movie fan with a real thrill.

"Should A Wife Forgive?" Comes to the Lyric Thursday.

Lillian Lorraine, the star of jungle film produced by Norval McGregor is one of the most thrilling and sensational wild animal films ever produced. Black Voodoo priests plan sacrifice of white maiden who is saved by her pet lions.

Hundreds of black natives are shown in the work of trapping and capturing the wild beasts.

"Tit for Tat" is a United Film Service comedy full of fun and laughs from start to finish.

Tomorrow brings Bob Leonard and Ella Hall in "Idols of Clay," a reel Gold Seal drama.

"Lord John's Journal" at the Arcana Tonight

Lord John in New York is the first episode in a series of twelve fine Gold Seal, four reel dramas featuring the American favorite, William Garwood. To show how interesting and fascinating this great story appeals to the people we kindly refer you to McClure's and the Ladies' World using it as one of their leading features. It is also one of the feature stories in the Every Week of the Sunday Enquirer. Manager Potts has had some of the greatest serials ever produced and the one of today will rank with the very best. It is a combination story that will please you, so make up your mind to see the entire series.

Helen Holmes At The Exhibit Tonight

"A Matter of Seconds," featuring Helen Holmes, in the great railroad series is the star attraction at the Exhibit today.

Dawson, a newcomer to the division, meets Helen while the girl is riding in the freight engine with Star, his engineer. The following day, Dawson, seizing her in his arms, kisses her. Star witnesses the incident and gives his fireman a thorough thrashing. Compelled to apologize to Helen, Dawson draws his humiliation in drink.

Intoxicated, the man picks a quarrel with the crew of the freight and is whipped. The following day brings his dismissal.

Temple Theatre

We have tonight "The Soul of Pierre," from the celebrated novel by George Olin, "But the Dead Do Not Return." The cast includes Franklin Ritchie, Charlotte Clair, Vola Smith, Louise Vale, Crutchen Hartman, Kate Bruce and others. "Marie L. Beneath You My Life and Soul," with these words the artist, Waldimir crowned his devotion to the invalid model whom he loved so dearly that at the bidding of the crystal gazer, he took poison and freed the spirit which would enter Marie's ailing body and renew her health. The fourth reel is a Vitaphone production entitled "The Professional Dinner." Admission 5c to all.

Permanent Relief For Chronic Constipation

Knowledge and Practice of Correct Daily Habit the Great Essential

Constipation is a condition affecting all classes of all people and can be permanently relieved by acquiring habits of regularity.

The most natural time for the digestive process is in the morning when both the muscular and nervous systems are relaxed by rest and rest. When relief does not come readily, it is an excellent plan to take a mild laxative at bedtime. Cathartics and purgatives that by the violence of their quick action shock and disturb the system, should not be employed.

An effective laxative remedy is very dependable, and which does not grip or otherwise disturb the organs involved, eating. It should be in every household.

PAST COMMANDER, H. V. SPEELMAN RECALLS MANY HAPPY REUNIONS HELD HERE BY SONS OF VETERANS

Some days since The Times published an excerpt from a splendid letter from the pen of Hon. H. V. Speelman of the U. S. Treasury department, Washington, D. C., past commander of Ohio Division Sons of Veterans, past commander-in-chief and now national press correspondent of the Sons of Veterans, in which he told of the "good old days" on the soldiers and Sons of Veterans reunions in Portsmouth, the warlike activities of the old Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans, and incidentally of a moonlight water-melon feast over in Kentucky, which none of the well known Portsmouth participants named can remember, although they seem to remember most other incidents that occurred in those days.

Mr. Speelman now comes forward with some more "exposures" which may refresh the memory of the "innocent ones." "Had I known that you would publish my letter I might have told some real worth-while 'truths' of 'the good old days.' That water-melon excursion was tame indeed when compared to some of the genuinely live events that transpired on those memorable moonlight nights and some that were not so 'lit.' Without attempting in any wise to refresh my memory, I recall, among other pleasant experiences, 'a pig roast' and doubtless some of the 'Innocent Ones' could, if they were so inclined, tell of that famous 'possum hunt' in the hills of 'Old Kentucky.' Then, we had forced marches, mostly after dark, and I remember at least on one of these occasions that 'the sweet potatoes even started from the ground,' just as I imagine they used to do down in Georgia. Keeping up the spirit, you know. Upon returning to camp after these wanderings, the remainder of the night would usually be occupied in drum-beat court-martial, after-midnight and early morning sermons, always led by the world-renowned 'Hoss Town Band,' with Captain Louden Lindsey in the role of drum major, and other forms of amusement equally pleasing and enjoyable, especially to those who were endeavoring to sustain a few moments of much-needed sleep. 'Unheard of, that anybody should go to Scioto county soldiers' reunion to sleep,' should 'Billy' Bundy from his enforced elevated position in the old sycamore tree at the hour of 4 o'clock a. m. Which patriotic sentiment was vociferously applauded by the multitude."

The "Billy" Bundy who was the life of these gatherings, was the late Col. W. E. Bundy, then a captain of a Jackson Camp, later commander of Ohio division, and commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans, and U. S. district attorney at Cincinnati, one of the best loved members of the order, and still spoken of in terms of endearment wherever Sons of Veterans meet. The "moonlight pig roastin'", "possum huntin'" and sweet potato "liftin'" occurred during the reunions of the Society of the Army of West Virginia when thousands of soldiers and Sons of Veterans camped at Old Camp Morrow during the several days of each reunion. The headquarters tent of Vienna Camp was located about where Jacob Pfau's bakery and confectionery now stands, and the large speaking tent, seating over 10,000 people, was or near the ground now covered by the Irving Drew factory.

Mr. Speelman also seems to have forgotten many incidents. Surely he cannot have forgotten the "Solan launch," Jim McJunkin, the Shannons, McCalls and others of O. P. Moore Camp, or the choice spirits from Friendship, "Joe" Merrill, "Jim" Thatcher, Ed Warren, "Al" Pyels with Captain "Billie" Williams always along and east for the part of Memphis.

Mr. Speelman tells of those wonderful parades, and splendid whole-hearted patriotic Portsmouth of those days—not so long ago.

"The parade was always one of the biggest events of the reunion with every soldier and every son of a soldier in line. Patriotic Portsmouth was dressed in her gala attire, with 'Old Glory' floating from every business house and private residence, and every man, woman and child giving honor to the 'Boys in Blue,' the heroes who helped to save the Union. Yes, indeed those were good old days, never to be forgotten, and it gives me much pleasure to become reminiscent and recall them. Friendships were there formed that time cannot sever, and I can but believe that the comradeship existing between the members of the order of Sons of Veterans, U. S. A. is not unlike that which bound our fathers together as they fought for the preservation of the Union away back in the days of the Sixties. It is our duty to emulate their virtues and to commemorate their heroic deeds. We should see to it that the camp-fires of patriotism are kept burning from the hill-tops to serve as beacon lights and to guide the onward steps of the millions yet-to-be. This done, our glorious country will ever continue indivisible, incorruptible and indestructible."

The following and last paragraph of Mr. Speelman's letter is respectfully referred to the fellows who cannot remember any of those "live-wire" happenings of other days. The names given were among those who were leading spirits in Vienna Camp of old days and those mentioned were Col. Filmore Musser, W. L. Quast, Geo. Bauer, Tommie Adams, Will Clayton, P. E. Selby, Nevins Musser, Capt. Billy Williams, Harry Huddleston, L. C. Tutley and others.

"It gave me genuine pleasure to read the list of names contained in the Times article. They all come back to me as a happy memory, and I can testify that each of these good fellows did his full share toward the success of the events of interest, an account of many of which never has and furthermore never will find its way into cold type—yes, those events of 'consuming' interest which characterized the good old days down in Scioto county. In justice to the other fellows, it is but fair to say that a certain young cub reporter, whose name it seems altogether unnecessary to mention, was the 'bright and shining star' in the art of plucking big, red, ripe water-melons."

Attention of the Vienna Camp of today is called to the 179th article of war, which makes "moonlight pig-roasting" and sweet potato "raising" high treason to the government of the United States.

WATER WORKS COMMITTEE PLANNING TO MAKE RESERVOIR WATER PROOF

The new Water Works Advisory Committee, at its meeting Monday night, decided to get into communication with some of the responsible water proofing concerns of the country relative to tightening the local reservoir after it is restored.

Engineer George P. Shute, secretary of the committee, was directed to write to various water-proofing the reservoir.

No special action was taken on the reservoir matter as City Engineer Samuel Harper reported that he was not quite finished with the work of making test-holes at the reservoir to determine the rock surface.

Engineer W. L. Watson, of the J. F. Witmer Company, having turned over to the committee the report of S. S. Hill, the New York expert, on the proposed restoration of the reservoir, considerable time was spent studying the main features of the voluminous document.

The committee was plainly opposed to acting upon any of the recommendations contained in Mr. Hill's report. His estimate for repairing the reservoir is $70,000, which, with the original cost of $36,000, together with the $20,000 extra expense caused by somewhat shifting the location would bring the total cost of the reservoir up to $126,000. Mr. Hill said while the repairs he recommended appear large as compared with the original, the additional cost is considerably less than would be involved in the construction of a reservoir of similar size and quality of workmanship equal to that which the reservoir should have after the repairs have been made.

The vigilance of Foreman Harry King and other N. & W. employees was rewarded when they caught Ed McNamara and Sterling LeMaster, two local 19-year-old youths, in the act of stealing brass from the bronze shop at the Terminal Monday night about 8:30 p.

The young fellows had two grimy sacks filled with brass, and they had about all they could comfortably carry, they are thought to have been about ready to jump when detected. King and some others had been keeping a close lookout since 6 o'clock. The striking of a match caused the making of the brass thieves, for King saw the flash. He and the other railroad men rushed to the little shop and found McNamara and LeMaster inside. They turned them over to Police Officer Armour Platt.

Both young men pleaded guilty in police court Tuesday morning to stealing $15 worth of brass. McNamara admitted having been caught stealing brass from the same place three or four months ago, but then to 30 days in the Cincinnati Jail. He was suspended sentence upon him.

Foreman King was the prosecutor.

IMPORTANT CHANGES MADE BY THE BOARD OF HEALTH

Mayor H. H. Kaps presided over his first Health Board meeting Monday afternoon. The chief features of the session were the naming of Frank Burt as plumbing inspector to succeed Arthur Hutton, resigned, and the abolishing of the office of milk and dairy inspector, the work being given to the health officer and city physician. Captain James Little, new member, attended his first session.

The first matter taken up was the vault in the rear of property at Eleventh and Offshore streets, owned by Mrs. Clara Foster. She has been repeatedly notified to tap the sanitary sewer but has failed to obey the orders of the board each time, it was stated.

Dr. A. L. Test said this matter had been hanging fire for over six months and that it was time something definite was done.

Mayor Kaps enlightened the board when he reported that Mrs. Foster appeared before him in a private hearing on Saturday Jan. 29, and that he placed her under a suspended fine of $100 and costs and gave her ten days in which to comply with the Health Board's orders. Plumbing Inspector Hutton filed the affidavit against Mrs. Foster. The ten days will be up Wednesday, this week. Mayor Kaps said Mrs. Foster would be brought in and fined if the tap was not made in the time given her and that he intended to carry out every order of the Health Board.

A scheduled of bills amounting to $355.50 was allowed. Applications for the office of Plumbing Inspector were read from Frank Burt, Charles Seeley and George Wilkerson. Clerk Berndt announced that the three had passed a successful Civil Service examination with the following grades: Burt 98 per cent, Seeley 88 per cent and Wilkerson 90 per cent. The application of Wilkerson was endorsed by President Joe Nolan of the Journeymen Plumbers' Union and by W. W. Watrous, president of the Master Plumbers' association.

A ten minutes recess was given to consider the applications at the end of which time a motion was passed naming Burt as the new inspector at the old salary of $100 per month.

Health Officer Smith reported that J. H. Goodposter had failed to comply with orders of the board in making sanitary improvements at his store and that the grocer said he was soon to go out of business. A new contract was received from Mr. Goodposter for the taking care of vault refuse for another year. The contract called for an increase of five cents more per barrel. With the increase in price the refuse will be buried and not dumped on the ground. The price is now 35 cents per barrel west of Offshore street and 45 cents east of Offshore street. Goodposter is to comply with the state law in carrying out his contract.

Dr. Test reported that he thought too much money was being expended for the burying of dogs. After a short discussion it was decided to pay the old price of 50 cents per dog, Mr. Goodposter taking care of the work.

Health Officer Smith reported that the alleged unsanitary conditions at the Peebles property on Mahert road and at the McCollins property on Twelfth street should be investigated. The committee on sanitation was ordered to investigate and report at the next meeting.

A motion was passed raising the salary of the city physician from $100 to $125, the $25 being allowed for medical supplies. The health officer's salary was increased from $75 to $100. With the raise in salaries came the dividing of the work of milk and dairy inspector and city bacteriologist. Dr. Walter Daehler has fully filled this office. The work of inspecting dairies goes to Dr. Smith who is now health officer, sanitary policeman and dairy inspector. The work of testing milk goes to Dr. William Schaefer, city physician, who will be known as city physician, milk inspector and city bacteriologist.

The following communication was read from Mr. Hutton and ordered placed on file: "As the retiring plumbing inspector there are several recommendations I wish to make to this board. The enforcement of the ordinances of the board of health and the city requiring the property owners to tap sanitary sewers, especially where unsanitary conditions prevail, that the city of Portsmouth trap all catch basins for storm water where storm sewers are used in combination with sanitary sewers; that the board thoroughly investigate the condition of plumbing as installed now and before a plumbing inspector was appointed by the board of health in regard to considering the abolishment of the office of plumbing inspector."

The city physician reported 397 house visits, 35 office calls and 4 obstetrical cases for the past month. Dr. Smith's report as health officer was 13 cases of scarlet fever and six of diphtheria for January with only five cases of contagion in the city at present. Complaints to the number of 42 were received and investigated.

Dr. Daehler reported that he had made nine throat swabs for diphtheria in the past month. Plumbing Inspector Hutton reported 108 inspections, 15 systems examined and approved, 15 permits issued and $27 as the amount received for plumbing and vault permits.

RESIDENTS OF ARIZONA REPORTED IN DANGER INDIANS ARE AROUSED AND MAY OPEN ATTACK

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 8.—Five thousand residents in the north-eastern portion of Arizona are alarmed over the reports that the Hopi tribe of Navajo Indians were threatening to go on the "war path," according to reports received here last night. Approximately 25,000 Indians are living on the Navajo reservation, but it was not known what proportion of them were involved in the threatened uprising.

The Hopi became angered, it was said, when one of their number was shot and killed several days ago by police officers. The Indian opened a fire on the police when they attempted to arrest a fellow tribesman and was killed.

LESS DEPENDENCE IN AMERICAN "GUESS" IS A WARNING ISSUED

Washington, Feb. 8.—Warning to American business men to place less dependence upon the "Proverbial American guess" and to do constructive thinking, to become less partisan in dealing with the economic questions and to discourage the prevalent disengagement of efforts of men in public life was voiced by Noah H. Fay, president of the chamber of commerce.

"I am convinced," said President Fay, "that if we are quite frank with ourselves we must realize that for many years we have been very poorly informed as to the real facts involved in great questions before the coun-

GERMANY REPORTED TRYING TO MAKE PEACE WITH JAPAN

Tokio, Feb. 8.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Confirmation of reports that Germany has been unsuccessfully trying to conclude a separate peace with Japan was made by Count Okuma, the premier, in an interview with a representative of the Kokumin Shimbu. The premier believed this indicated that Germany was showing certain signs of suffering, chiefly as a result of finances.

While no details of the peace negotiations were made public, the premier said it was hardly necessary to announce that Japan could adhere to the London peace declaration by which she had agreed not to make a separate peace.

Criticism in some quarters has arisen because Japan's adhesion to the London peace declaration

COAL $40 PER TON IN ITALY

Rome, Feb. 8.—With American coal scarce because of the ship shortage, and selling here from $25 to $40 a ton, according to quality, the solution of the problem of securing coal in quantity and at reasonable prices has become one of the most pressing public and domestic questions in Italy.

While the situation will finally result in governmental measures for a wider use of water power, popularly known as "white coal," to secure heat, light and motor power, pending such action, various temporary measures are either being urged or adopted. In a current issue of the organ of the Minister of Public Works, Italian cities are urged to save coal by burning fewer street lights at night, following the example of London, Paris and Venice, and force their citizens to go to bed early.

A DECREASE IN BANKRUPTS IN GERMANY

Berlin, Feb. 8.—A noteworthy decrease in the number of bankruptcies was one of the more striking features of Germany's business life in 1915. According to statistics just issued there were only 4,580 bankruptcies, as against 7,738 in 1914. These figures are commented upon in the press as denoting the economic soundness of Germany's position.

FIVE BILLS AGAINST BROKER

Toledo, Feb. 8.—Five indictments were returned yesterday afternoon by the grand jury against Harry Eldridge, arrested last Friday in a raid on his brokerage office in the Spitzer building. His office was one of many in different Ohio cities. Eldridge is at liberty on $700 bail.

RUSSIA'S MUNITION CRISIS IS OVER

Paris, Feb. 8.—Russia's munitions crisis is now a thing of the past," said General Poliviatoff, Russian minister of war.

"It is an unpleasant memory, but fortunately, only a memory," with regard to the troops the minister said: "Their spirit is excellent. At the present time we have a reserve of young recruits large enough to enable us to keep all the units up to their full strength. This is of great importance, for it has been observed that the morale of the soldier is apt to deteriorate when he sees his company, which originally had 250 or 300 men, reduced to a few dozen."

Germans Can Stand To Become Poorer

Berlin, Feb. 8.—(Wireless to Sayville)—"We Germans can stand it, if we become poorer, since we will remain what we are now," said Dr. Carl Helfferich, secretary of the German of the Imperial treasury, in his reply to the question propounded by Sir Edward Olden, the English financier, as given out today by the Overseas News Agency. But if England should become impoverished that would mean the end of Britannia.

BLAME WOMEN FOR BOOTLEGGING

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 8.—Women are now giving the prohibition officers of West Virginia more trouble than are the men. These officials have captured but few men violators during the last week and declare that all the intoxicants brought into the state illegally in that time has been transported by women, many of whom are related to men suspected of bootlegging.

AMERICAN DOCTOR BURNED, SHOT AND HIS HEAD CHOPPED OFF

Petrograd, Feb. 8.—Dr. Jacob Sargis, an American Methodist medical missionary, who has arrived in Petrograd after narrowly escaping death at the hands of the Turks and Kurds in Uthumiah, Persian Armenia, asserts that among the outrages committed against the Christian refugees was the burning to death of an American doctor named Simon or Shimmun, as he was known there. His identity was not further established, but the story of the outrage, as told by Dr. Sargis, was as follows:

"Dr. Shimmun was in the village of Supurghun when the Turks attacked that place. He was among those who took refuge on a mountain near the lakes. He was captured and told that since he had been a good doctor and had helped the wounded, they would not kill him but that he must accept the Mohammedan faith. He refused, as almost all Christians did. They poured oil on him, and, before applying the torch, they gave him another chance to forsake his religion. Again he refused and they set his clothes afire. After he fell to the ground unconscious they hacked his head off. Mr. Allen, an American missionary, who went from village to village burying the victims of this butchery, found the body of this Shimmun half eaten by dogs.

"The Catholic mission there took 150 Christians of all sects and kept them in a small room and tried to save them, but at least forty-nine of them, among them one Bishop Dinkha of the Episcopal mission, were bound together one night, taken to Gagin Mountain and there shot down."

PREPAREDNESS MEASURES IN HANDS OF THE SENATE

Washington, Feb. 8.—The two house measures to strengthen the navy went over to the senate today.

One is a bill to provide for adding about three hundred midshipmen to the entrance class at Annapolis next July and the other calling for equipment for the navy yards at New York and Mare Island for the construction of battleships numbers 43 and 44.

Speaker Champ Clark took the lead in urging passage of the bills.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Speaker Clark and Republican Leader Mann fought side by side in the House yesterday for adequate national defense. With party lines obliterated most of the members followed their leaders and two navy measures passed without a dissenting vote. One, to provide for adding three hundred midshipmen to the entering class at Annapolis next July, passed 173 to nothing and the other to equip the navy yards for construction of battleships numbers 43 and 44, having joined the opposition.

passed without a roll call. Mr. Mann tried to put the anti-preparedness advocates on record by calling for a division on the academy bill but there were no negative responses.

The appearance of Speaker Clark on the floor to champion preparedness measures aroused at wide interest. Rumors persisted that he would take active charge of the fight to increase the army and navy. Majority Leader Kitchin, having joined the opposition.

WANTS TO RECOVER MONEY PAID TO THE GOVERNMENT

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 8.—Edward Elliot, a revenue clerk in the federal office eleven years ago, has a claim filed today for $580 found in an old government safe which has been in storage in Chicago. Elliot during his term of office was charged with a shortage of $580 and, although it was believed to be due to a clerical error, had to pay that amount to the government.

Taxpayers it was decided to make use of an old safe which had been sent Chicago for storage from the federal building in Indianapolis. In cleaning out the strong box $580 was found under the lining. The story of finding the money was given wide publicity, but Elliot did not hear of it until recently. He has now filed his claim to recover the money.

SITUATION AT IRONTON

Ironton, Feb. 8.—The suggestion plan of John H. DeArmond, of Hamilton to include Ironton in a circuit with Huntington, Charleston, Mayville, Ashland, Castletown, and Portsmouth, meets with favor generally in this city as it is pretty generally conceded that the league would be a go with this circuit, inasmuch as the traveling expenses would be at a minimum and with an even break in the weather conditions the league's success might be assured. However, there does not seem to be a wealth of baseball sentiment in this city just now and it would require quite a "tuning up" before the proposition is undertaken. However, as said before, it is the best proposition that has been broached that has to do with league baseball for Ironton and it might work out successfully.

Y. W. C. A. MILESTONES OR CONTRASTING THE YEARS

Forty Years Ago 1876-1886

Forty years ago gymnasium work of today was unknown, but calisthenics—which was more training in grace of movement than in healthful bodily vigor—was first taught in 1877 by a boarder in the Boston boarding home.

In 1884 Boston opened the first association gymnasium for women in America in their building in Berkeley street.

Boston led the country in establishing cooking classes and domestic training in 1879.

In 1883 Boston gave the first series of emergency lectures.

Heretofore there had been practically unrelated local associations. In 1884 State Associations made up of the various local Associations were formed in Michigan, Ohio and Iowa.

Today Feb. 8-14, 1916

There are today 58,462 members enrolled in classes of the physical education department. Today 197 associations have well equipped gymnasiums. Cooking class members now number 8,623 in 125 associations.

In 1915 hundreds of certificates were issued for examinations passed in the Red Cross Manual and First Aid classes.

The United States is now organized into eleven fields, each field grouping several states.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them.

To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WELCOME TO COME IN

From time to time some esteemed subscriber writes The Times that New Boston and Sciotoville should be annexed so as to make the Greater Portsmouth. We are in hearty accord with the proposition and gain additional pleasure out of it in the fact that it is endorsed now and then by some alert correspondent. Of course these two thriving villages ought to be made a part of the Peerless, but whether so or not rests solely with themselves. Portsmouth stands ready to give them welcome any time. The gain would be common and nothing for either to lose on any hand. As mere villages both New Boston and Sciotoville will always be obscured to an extent by their near position to the city and from this lose both growth and the full enjoyment of a city service that would come to them with amalgamation. One thing would they especially profit by and that is better educational facilities. For they would be entitled to unrestricted attendance at the city high schools, and, no doubt, at an early day there would be a second high school for their especial convenience and benefit.

By all means let the villages come in. The growth of Portsmouth, whether inside or outside its corporate lines is going to have its greatest development eastward and it should have the name as well as the substantial results otherwise that will come from that growth.

HIGH LIFE IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

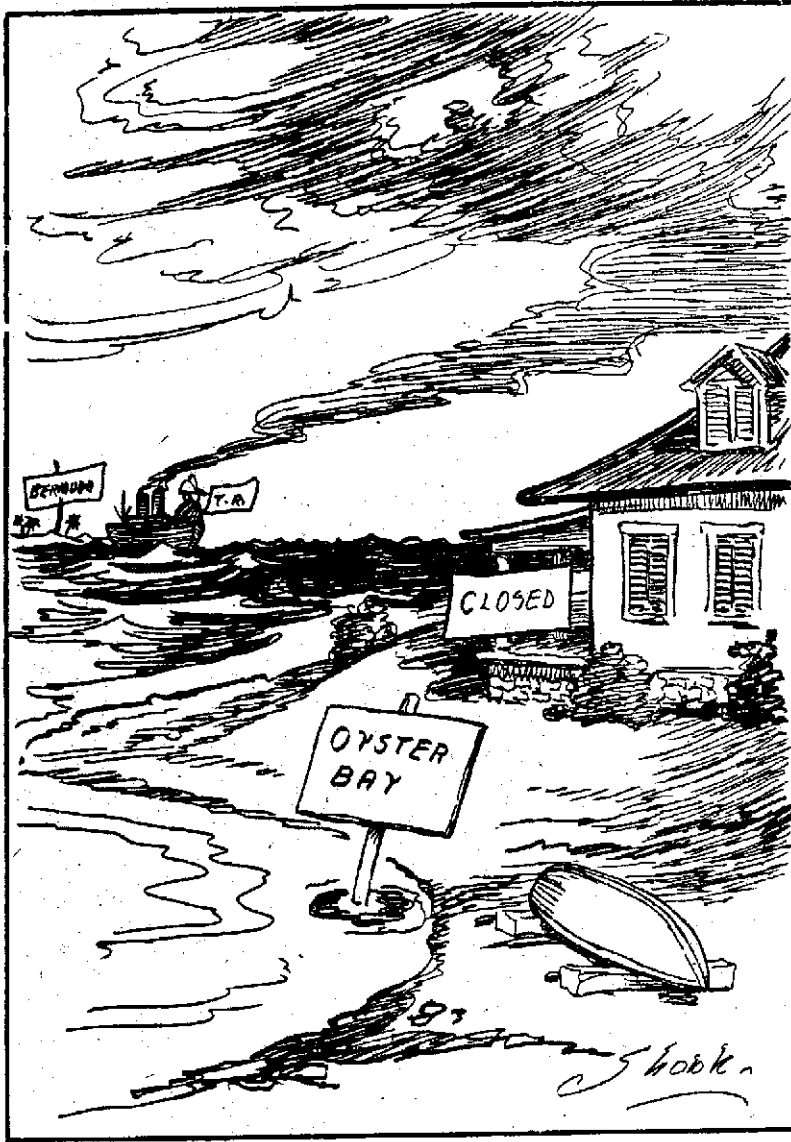

Editor "Bob" Ryder, of the Ohio State Journal, has been perambulating around Washington, D. C., for a week or two, seeing all of the sights from the Washington monument to the big million dollar package of real money. Incidentally he has been stopping at the New Willard Hotel and in a letter to the Journal he gives a laughable description of high life in that expensive hostelry that will appeal irresistibly to every traveler. We are sorry that we have not space to reproduce the whole letter, but here is a pretty good sample:

"The New Willard is perfect in all its appointments. One rises in one's $15-a-day bed-chamber shortly before the breakfast hour, dons one's $18 suit and one's $3.50 boots, purchased at one's own expense, pays the fresh-faced young living-woman 50 cents for poking her trim coiffure in at one's door and inquiring if one needs more towels when one already has no fewer than six of the vastest pattern now extant, fees the bright young bell boy in a like sum, for passing one's door without asking one if one desires anything, and the ambitious young elevator boy, for saying good-morning to one in a cheery way, and descends to the beautiful breakfast room with its arched groins. Here, if one is a light eater, one toys with approximately $3.50 worth, exclusive of larges, dole and pourboire, distributed in quick succession to whom-ever in a dress suit one happens to see looking at one, and finally escapes for another day of delight among the sight-seeing automobiles and the other art treasures which abound at our national capital. We think most of the $3.50 must have been for the groined arches, for we ate very little else for breakfast. Be that as it may, toward the end of our stay in Washington, when the last of the crisp $100 notes with which our kind employer in his thoughtful way and infinite wisdom had provided us for the defrayment of the necessary expenses of our diplomatic mission began to assume a position of some conspicuousness in our First National Bank of Columbus, Ohio, bill-holder, we fell into the habit of breakfasting at the justly popular Childs Restaurant, where there are no groined arches and relatively few largesses, dotes and pourboires. Absolute perfection falls after a time and one likes a little variety."

Voliva, who succeeded Dowie in the management of affairs at Zion City took a full out of dancing and dancers in a recent sermon to his flock. "The churches that run dances are full of the devil" was one of his striking sentences. Then he described dancing as being simply a hugging match. "Men go to dances to hug the women, and women go to hug the men" was his summing up. If women, and women go to hug the men" was his summing up. If women, and women go to hug the men" was his summing up. If women, and women go to hug the men" was his summing up.

It just amounts to this: If we are prepared we will be ready; if we are not we won't, and it will be too late to begin.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

AND YET THE WORK OF "PREPAREDNESS" GOES ON

IN THE SIXTH DISTRICT

Colonel Faulkner, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, in referring to the congressional situation in the Sixth district, speaks of the announced candidacy of A. G. Turnipseed, of Adams county, and says that W. A. Inman, of Portsmouth, may make another try at the place. Mr. Inman went down in the landslide two years ago, but made a splendid race, running far ahead in the district, of state candidates. It can be said that Mr. Inman, while he has not made any formal announcement of his candidacy, has the matter under consideration. He is being offered support from all sections of the district and it is more than likely that he will again be a candidate. He is admirably fitted for the office and he has an acquaintance throughout the district that will be of great value to him, not only in the primary but also in the election in the event of his nomination. Locally, he will be fortunate over two years ago in that he will go into the primary without opposition in his home county, there being a general sentiment locally that Mr. Inman is entitled to unanimous support if he decides to make the race.

When we get a large number of farmers interested in our board of trade as associate members, the betterment of market conditions in Portsmouth ought to be taken up and an effort made to work out a solution. It ought to be so that a farmer could bring his produce, his cattle, and his hogs and his sheep to Portsmouth and be assured of a market for all he brings. As it is, we have been told by many farmers that they are afraid to bring much stuff to town for fear that they will not be able to sell it. If they do wish to sell out they generally have to hawk it about from house to house and a good many object to doing this. The result is that much Scioto county farm produce goes to the Cincinnati market, direct from the farm. We ought to be handling all or nearly all of our own farm products out of Portsmouth, and when we get to that point it will be better for everybody.

It becomes more and more apparent that most of our crises with Germany over the Lusitania affair existed principally in the minds of the alert Washington correspondents. The two governments have been going smoothly ahead towards a peaceful settlement.

One of the pleasant things about newspaper life in West Virginia these days is that whenever news is dull the valiant reporters can always go out and scare up a bootlegging raid with enough trimmings to make it readable. The latest bootlegger carried half pints in her stockings.

John McCormack is to sing in Huntington. We heard him sing down in Cincinnati the other day. It was very fine, very enjoyable. But for all that we get as much enjoyment from hearing him sing out of a Victrola.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O.O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Feb. 8.—Depressing news has reached Fifth Avenue that will take care of a poor poet.

Paul Poiret, the Parisian fashion-maker, is to quit the dressmaking business. It was a shock to his patrons along Millionaires' Row, who journeyed to his Paris shop each year. Fashion experts are predicting that the mantle of the color-bred designer will fall upon the shoulders of Michael, a young designer genius of Gotham. He has looked and since the war been setting the pace for other tools of trade were inside, he of the Callots, Paquins and Worths, kicked in the door, but was told to move on.

The name of Michael was not known until a few years ago as his name was submerged behind another firm. Then a group of rich society leaders backed him and he opened the most luxurious gown and tailor-establishment in the city at 734 Fifth Avenue. If you know your Fifth Avenue numbers you will realize that this is right across the street from the famous home of Cornelius Vanderbilt—where tradesmen are barred.

Michael got his name in all of the New York papers and rooms of publicity for designing the majority of the costumes for the social stars who shone at the recent brilliant reception which established the status of the widow of Col. Astor in society a few weeks ago. There was much speculation as to how the former Madeline Force was to be welcomed, but she was the social success of the season, so the startling gown effects that Michael secured practically made him over night.

Here is a spectacular shoot from the young idea—an essay on "To a Water-fowl," by a New York pupil in the Sixth grade:

"W. C. Bryan was the name of a poor poet. By writing poems was the only way he could make a living. He wrote a poem and when he went to the editor to sell it, he was refused.

"Discouraged, he was walking home. He saw a waterfowl going toward the sky. He knew it was seeking a summer home.

When Arthur Devoss was appointed to that job at Columbus the most frequent comment heard hereabouts was "Why, when did he get into politics?" Considering developments we are inclined to believe that Arthur has gotten his eye teeth out faster and quicker in the political game than any other man that ever tackled it. He probably can give lessons to some of the old timers.

The man in charge of the rebuilding of the opera house has certainly been careful not to unnecessarily blockade the sidewalk on the Chillicothe street side. For which the public owes him many thanks.

Portsmouth climate is really in a class by itself. Yesterday when we had as near an ideal winter day as one could hope for, the rest of the state was shivering in a forty mile blizzard.

An Adams county man offers himself for congress on the ground that his county hasn't sent any one in Washington for half a century and more. Is that a delicate or indelicate way of saying one Fenton—we believe that was his name—is "a perfect nonentity."

The apparent improvement in the temper of our good young Governor leads us to suspect that the only Republican that wants to see him renominated must have sent him a big mess of chicken gizzards.

Don't tell us there is nothing new under the sun. Down in Cincinnati the Puchta administration is making a nation mighty like punishing saloon keepers for violating the Sunday closing law.

If every winter day were like Monday, who would mind the season? The sun shone brightly and there was a tang in the atmosphere that tingled the cheeks and hastened the feet as though bent to some wondrous goal.

There is no use denying it these abrupt ups and downs of the Ohio are a strain on the steadiest nerves.

Having a kindly heart you can hope the girl in white shoes these frosty days isn't as uncomfortable as she looks—and not mean her feet are the principal part of her either.

Our good young governor now concedes Jim Cox did something that were not positively and unutterably wicked. That is going some, as the small boy said.

The fellow that wishes to get into the presidential stake as an also ran should send in his name to the Democratic state committee.

We hope that we are having the last of Colonel Sibley's winter days. It is about time for some real weather and some good soups. And then the automobile days.

D'y'e 'Spose This Editor's Married? Bachelors won't enlist in England. What is a bachelor anyhow? Theoretically, he is a man that no woman would have.

Practically, he is either one who couldn't get the woman he wanted or didn't have the nerve either to ask a woman or else to take her when he knew he could get her.

In the first instance you would have a bachelor willing to enlist. In the latter two, which embrace nine bachelors out of ten, you have the kind who is prudent or timid. A prudent man will never answer his country's call. Bachelors may have more judgment than married men. They may, upon an average, have more brains. But no friend of these unwanted halves of a pair of human scissors can accuse them of nerve. They haven't, upon an average, got it. That's the chief reason they're bachelors.—Lamar (Mo.) Democrat.

POLLY AND HER PALS

AUNT MAGGIE'S PREPARED FOR THE SPUR OF NECESSITY

WATER WORKS COMMITTEE PLANNING TO MAKE RESERVOIR WATER PROOF

The new Water Works Advisory Committee, at its meeting Monday night, decided to get into communication with some of the responsible water proofing concerns of the country relative to tightening the local reservoir after it is restored.

Engineer George P. Shute, secretary of the committee, was directed to write to various water-proofing concerns.

No special action was taken on the reservoir matter as City Engineer Samuel Harper reported that he was not quite finished with the work of making test-holes at the reservoir to determine the rock surface.

Engineer W. L. Watson, of the J. F. Wither Company, having turned over to the committee the report of N. S. Hill, the New York expert, on the proposed restoration of the reservoir, considerable time was spent studying the main features of the voluminous document.

The committee was plainly opposed to acting upon any of the recommendations contained in Mr. Hill's report. His estimate for repairing the reservoir is $70,000, which, with the original cost of $200,000, together with the $30,000 extra expense caused by somewhat shifting the location would bring the total cost of the reservoir up to $300,000. Mr. Hill said while the repairs he recommended appear large as compared with the original, the additional cost is considerably less than would be involved in the construction of a reservoir of similar size and quality of workmanship equal to that which the reservoir should have after the repairs have been made.

Mr. Woodrow before going to the Queen City was employed by the Excelsior Shoe Company of this city. He is now sales manager of one of the best known firms in Cincinnati.

Safety Institute Not Experiment

Many are interested in the approaching Institute to be held in the Old Excelsior office building, corner Gallia and Bond, February 14-18. Why have these two words become so full of meaning to the American public? Because they express the hope and purpose of all who are interested in the welfare of humanity. Labor, capital, business, school and church unite in the promotion of "Safety and Efficiency."

A "Safety First" Exhibit has just closed at Cleveland under the direction of the "Industrial Commission of Ohio." The Portsmouth Institute is an outgrowth of the Cleveland Exhibit.

keeper in Colonel Peter Kinney's bank and later held responsible positions as an accountant. For years he was engaged in the retail coal business. He was a great-lover of horses, one of his greatest pleasures as well as his business pursuit for some time was in connection with them. He served the city faithfully for several terms as secretary of the water works and by his careful attention placed that institution on a paying basis. Mr. Hall loved life.

He loved everything in this world and was especially fond of all out door sports. He took much interest in athletic affairs and was an enthusiastic admirer of base ball. He was truly a good citizen and his words of love, advice and cheerfulness will be missed. He was a life-long member of the Episcopal church.

He was educated in the public schools, taking full course and was always identified with a human association. He had the happy faculty of always seeing the bright side of everything. He loved to tell a story and was delighted on hearing a good one. Always congenial and affable, death removed from the city one of its most interesting residents when Thomas Hall answered the final summons.

The funeral services will be conducted from the family residence, 1109 Second street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. E. Ainger Powell, pastor of All Saints church. Interment will be made in Greenlawn.

FATHERS BILL FOR MERCHANT MARINE

Congressman Alexander.

In the hope of building up an American merchant marine which can carry the nation's overseas commerce in time of peace and provide a naval auxiliary in time of war, Chairman Alexander of the merchant marine and fisheries committee has introduced a measure designed to carry out these ideas.

Brazil's Big Meteorite.
After lying in a bed of rust for many years the largest meteorite in any museum was finally landed in Rio de Janeiro by Dr. Orville Derby. It is more than seven feet long, almost five feet in width, and its weight when it fell was about 12,000 pounds. It was first discovered in 1784, and the following year an attempt was made to convey it to the town of Bahia by means of a truck built for the purpose. It took the men three days to load it, and eight oxen dragged it a distance of 1,500 feet to the bed of a stream near by, where they had to abandon it. There it lay for about twenty-five years, when Mr. Mornay, an Englishman, came upon it.

C. C. Koch
Christopher C. Koch, one of the oldest pioneer residents of Scioto county and widely known throughout the county, departed this life at 1:30 Monday morning after a short illness due to the infirmities of age.

Christopher C. Koch was born in Mechenburg, Schwanau, Germany in October, 1828, being past 87 years at the time of his death.

He came to this country in 1807 and went to Jackson county, when in 1867 he moved to the farm on Dogwood Ridge, Scioto county, where he lived until 1900. Since then he has made his home in Portsmouth. He was married in 1857 to Miss Sophia Moore, who preceded him in death. She had seven children were born, all living, Mrs. Mary Ann of Portsmouth, Mrs. Frank Kettle of Springfield, O., John of Ironton, George and Sophia of Wheelersburg and Hannah and Martha at home.

Mr. Koch was a faithful member of the Fourth Street M. E. church, regretting in the last years that he could not do more. He lived a quiet, unassuming life, ready when the summons came. The funeral services will be

BRASS THIEVES CAUGHT BY N. & W. "SLEUTHS"

The vigilance of Foreman Harry King and other N. & W. employees was rewarded when they caught Ed McNamara and Sterling Le Master, two local 19-year-old youths, in the act of stealing brass from the bronze shop at the Terminals Monday night about 8:30.

The young fellows had two gunny sacks filled with brass, and as they had about all they could comfortably carry, they are thought to have been about ready to decamp when detected. King and some others had been keeping a close lookout since 6 o'clock. The striking of a match caused the minding of the brass thieves, for King saw the flash. He and the other railroad men rushed to the little shop and found McNamara and LeMaster inside. They turned them over to Police Officer Armour Platt.

Both young men pleaded guilty in police court Tuesday morning to stealing $15 worth of brass. McNamara admitted having been caught stealing brass from the same place three or four months ago, but Judge Beatty suspended sentence upon him.

Foreman King was the prosecuting witness against the defendants. He described the capture and told of 560 pounds having disappeared from the N. & W.'s brass foundry in two hauls last Friday and Sunday nights. It was this wholesale stealing that caused him to keep watch for the thieves. He also stated that a considerable quantity of brass had been stolen from the N. & W. Terminals last summer.

Mayor Kaps fined the young men $25 and costs each and sentenced them to 30 days in the Cincinnati workhouse. The workhouse sentences were suspended upon condition that the fines are paid.

Romance At Wesley Hall Has Its Climax In Wedding

A short courtship of two active workers of the Wesley Hall Mission ripened into love and culminated in the marriage of Solon B. Williams, aged 36 years, and Miss Geneva E. Underwood, aged 17 years, Tuesday morning.

The romantic marriage took place at 10:30 o'clock at the home of the young bride's father, Joseph W. Underwood, a well known N. & W. engineer of 2112 Vinton avenue, Rev. J. E. Dibert of the Wesley Hall Mission, performing the ceremony. The newlyweds will leave on an afternoon B. & O. S. W. train for a few days' honeymoon at the groom's former home in Oak Hill, Jackson county, after which they will take a short trip through Northern Ohio.

Mr. Williams is superintendent of the industrial department of the Mission, coming to Portsmouth from Jackson county six months ago. It was the interest manifested by Miss Underwood in her work as teacher of the Sunday school class at the Mission for some months past that first attracted Mr. Williams to her and caused him to ask for her hand. She is a member of Manly M. E. church but both she and husband expect to transfer their membership to Trinity Methodist Episcopal church.

CLIMB HIGH.
No man or woman who has fallen can be restored to the position formerly held. Such must rise to a yet higher place, whence they can behold their former standing far beneath their feet.—George MacDonald.

For a Mere Song.
Many composers, like Coleridge Taylor, have missed the just reward of their labor, but there is another side to the picture. Sullivan received $10,000 in royalties for "The Lost Chord." "In Old Madrid" rewarded Tynere with a similar amount, and Bishop, it is said, drew something like $2,000 a line from "My Pretty Jane."—London Standard.

Common Consent.
Hicks—Has he any right to the title of colonel? "Hicks—Sure! Everybody calls him that."

Mayor H. H. Kaps presided over his first Health Board meeting Monday afternoon. The chief features of the session were the naming of Frank Burt as plumbing inspector to succeed Arthur Hinton, resigned, and the abolishing of the office of milk and dairy inspector, the work being given to the health officer and city physician. Captain James Little, new member, attended his first session.

The first matter taken up was the vault in the rear of property at Eleventh and Offshore streets, owned by Mrs. Clara Foster. She has been repeatedly notified to have the sanitary sewer but has failed to obey the orders of the board each time, it was stated.

Dr. A. L. Test said the matter had been hanging fire for over six months and that it was time something definite was done. Mayor Kaps enlightened the board when he reported that Mrs. Foster appeared before him in a private hearing on Saturday Jan. 29, and that he placed her under a suspended fine of $100 and costs and gave her ten days in which to comply with the Health Board's orders. Plumbing Inspector Hinton filed the affidavit against Mrs. Foster. The ten days will be up Wednesday, this week. Mayor Kaps said Mrs. Foster would be brought in and fined if the tap was not made in the time given her and that he intended to carry out every order of the Health Board.

A schedule of bills amounting to $355.50 was allowed. Applications for the office of Plumbing Inspector were read from Frank Burt, Charles Sealey and George Wilkerson. Clerk Berndt announced that the three had passed a successful Civil Service examination with the following grades: Burt 88 per cent, Seel 88 per cent and Wilkerson 90 per cent. The application of Wilkerson was endorsed by President Joe Nolan of the Journeymen Plumbers' Union and by W. W. Walrous, president of the Master Plumbers' association.

A ten minutes recess was given to consider the applications at the end of which time a motion was passed naming Burt as the new inspector at the old salary of $100 per month.

Health Officer Smith reported that J. H. Goodpaster had failed to comply with orders of the board in making sanitary improvements at his store and that the grocer said he was soon to go out of business. A new contract was received from Mr. Goodpaster for the taking care of vault refuse for another year. The contract called for an increase of five cents more per barrel. With the increase in price the refuse will be buried and not dumped on the ground. The price is now 35 cents per barrel west of Offshore street and 45 cents east of Offshore street. Goodpaster is to comply with the state law in carrying out his contract. Dr. Test reported that he thought too much money was being expended for the burying of dogs. After a short discussion it was decided to pay the old price of 50 cents per dog. Mr. Goodpaster taking care of the work.

Health Officer Smith reported that alleged unsanitary conditions at the Peaches property on Mahan Road and at the McCollins property on Twelfth street should be investigated. The committee on sanitation was ordered to investigate and report at the next meeting.

A motion was passed raising the salary of the city physician from $100 to $125, the $25 being allowed for medical supplies. The health officer's salary was increased from $75 to $100. With the raise in salaries came the dividing of the work of milk and dairy inspector and city bacteriologist. Dr. Walter Daehler has filled this office. The work of inspecting dairies goes to Dr. Smith who is now health officer, sanitary policeman and dairy inspector. The work of testing milk goes to Dr. William Schaefer, city physician, who will be known as city physician, milk inspector and city bacteriologist.

The following communication was read from Mr. Hinton and ordered placed on file: "As the retiring plumbing inspector there are several recommendations I wish to make to this board. The enforcement of the ordinances of the board of health and the city requiring the property owners to tap sanitary sewers, especially where unsanitary conditions prevail; that the city of Portsmouth trap all catch basins for storm water where storm sewers are used in combination with sanitary sewers; that the board thoroughly investigate the condition of plumbing as installed now and before a plumbing inspector was appointed by the board of health in regard to considering the abolishment of the office of plumbing inspector."

The city physician reported 397 house visits, 35 office calls and 4 obstetrical cases for the past month. Dr. Smith's report as health officer was 13 cases of scarlet fever and six of diphtheria for January with only five cases of contagion in the city at present. Complaints to the number of 42 were received and investigated.

Dr. Daehler reported that he had made nine throat swabs for diphtheria in the past month. Plumbing Inspector Hinton reported 108 inspections, 15 systems examined and approved, 15 permits issued and $57 as the amount received for plumbing and vault permits.

OBITUARY

Thomas Shewell Hall

Death removed from the city the oldest native born citizen of Portsmouth when Thomas Shewell Hall passed peacefully to his final resting place Monday evening, his death taking place at the family residence, 1109 Second street. For 80 years Mr. Hall had been a useful and honored citizen of Portsmouth and during these years he had been actively identified with prominent civic and private affairs.

Mr. Hall's death while not unexpected, resulted from a very short illness. He was able to talk about business matters as late as last Thursday afternoon and assured his family that he would be much better on Friday. But such was not to be and Mr. Hall lapsed into a semi-conscious state Friday and from that time on his condition became exceedingly dangerous and Mr. Hall slept away like a child. The indomitable courage that was his throughout his life did not desert him until the last moment. Then it was that the family began to realize that Mr. Hall was in the shadows and a short time later his spirit returned to its Maker.

Thomas Shewell Hall was born in Portsmouth October 26, 1835. His parents were William Hall and Margaret Kinney. On May 24, 1859 Mr. Hall was married to Sallie Kate Rigdon, who with the following children survive: William Rigdon Hall, Charles Shewell Hall, Miss Lucy Williams Hall and Mrs. Milton J. Riggs, of Orlando, Florida.

Mr. Hall came from a long lived family, the first death occurring five years ago when Rev. Wyllys Hall of San Francisco, passed away. Henry Hall of this city was the next brother to pass to the Great Beyond and his death was followed by William Foote Hall of Chicago. Dr. Lorin Hall of Wilmette, Ill., was the last brother to answer the final summons. Five grand children also survive.

Until within six months of his death Mr. Hall was bookkeeper for Neudoefer and Silcox, wholesale grocers, which position he held for several years. He was especially desirous of retaining it until his 80th birthday. Of him can it truly be said that he was "eighty years young."

Mr. Hall's business career was begun in the dry goods store of his father, a prominent man of affairs, civic and private. At the time of his marriage he was bookkeeper in Colonel Peter Kinney's

PAST COMMANDER, H. V. SPEELMAN RECALLS MANY HAPPY REUNIONS HELD HERE BY SONS OF VETERANS

(By H. M. S.)

Some days since The Times published an excerpt from a splendid letter from the pen of Hon. H. V. Speelman of the U. S. treasury department, Washington, D. C., past commander of Ohio Division Sons of Veterans, past commander-in-chief and now national press correspondent of the Sons of Veterans, in which he told of the "good old days" on the soldiers and Sons of Veterans reunions in Portsmouth, the war-like activities of the old Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans, and incidentally of a moonlight watermelon feast over in Kentucky, which none of the well known Portsmouth participants named can remember, although they all seem to remember most other incidents that occurred in those days.

Mr. Speelman now comes forward with some more "experiences" which may refresh the memory of the "innocent ones." "And I know that you would publish my letter I might have told some real worth-while 'truths' of 'the good old days.' That watermelon excursion was indeed when compared to some of the genuinely fine events that transpired on those memorable moonlight nights and some that were not so 'lit' with attempting in any wise to refresh my memory. I recall, among other pleasant experiences, 'a pig roast' at Old Camp Morrow during the several days of each reunion. 'Innocent Ones' could, if they were so inclined, tell of that Camp was located about where the famous 'possum hunt' in the Jacob Plan's bakery and confect-hills of 'Old Kentucky.' Then, there were many stunts, and we had forced marches, mostly large speaking tent, seating over after dark, and I remember at 10,000 people, was or near the least on one of these occasions that 'the sweet potatoes even started from the ground,' just as I imagine they used to do down in Georgia. Keeping up the spirit, you know. Upon returning to camp after these wanderlusting trips, the remainder of the night would usually be occupied in drum-head courts-martial, after-midnight and early morning serenades, always led by the world-renowned 'Boss Town Band,' with Captain London Lindsey in der-in-chief and now national press correspondent of the Sons of Veterans, in which he told of the "good old days" on the soldiers and Sons of Veterans reunions in Portsmouth, the war-like activities of the old Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans, and incidentally of a moonlight watermelon feast over in Kentucky, which none of the well known Portsmouth participants named can remember, although they all seem to remember most other incidents that occurred in those days.

The "Bible" Budy who was the life of these gatherings, was the late Col. W. E. Bundy, then a captain of a Jackson Camp, later a commander of this division, and commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans, and U. S. district attorney at Cincinnati, one of the best loved members of the order, and still spoken of in terms of veneration wherever Sons of Veterans meet. The "moonlight pig roast" was a "possum hunt," a "possum hunt" and sweet potato "lifting" occurred during the reunions of the Virginia Society of the Army of West Virginia when thousands of soldiers and Sons of Veterans camped at Old Camp Morrow during the several days of each reunion. "Innocent Ones" could, if they were so inclined, tell of that Camp was located about where the famous 'possum hunt' in the Jacob Plan's bakery and confect-hills of 'Old Kentucky.' Mr. Speelman also seems to have forgotten many incidents. Surely he cannot have forgotten the "Sedan bunch," Jim McJunkin, those "live-wire" happenings of the Shannons, McCalls and others of O. P. Moore Camp, or the choice spirits from Friendship, "Joe" Merrill, "Jim" Thatcher, Ed Warren, "Al" Pvels with Captain "Billie" Williams always along and east for the part of Memphis.

Mr. Speelman tells of those wonderful parades and splendid whole-hearted patriotic Portsmouth of those days,—not so long ago.

"The parade was always one of the biggest events of the reunion with every soldier and every son of a soldier in line. Patriotic Portsmouth was dressed in her gala attire, with 'Old Glory' floating from every business house and private residence, and every man, woman and child giving honor to the 'Boys in Blue,' the heroes who helped to save the Union. Yes, indeed, those were good old days, never to be forgotten, and it gives me much pleasure to become reminiscent and recall them. Friendships were there formed that time cannot sever, and I can but believe that the comradeship existing between the members of the order of Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., is not unlike that which bound our fathers together as they fought for the preservation of the Union away back in the days of the Sixties. It is our duty to emulate their virtues and to commemorate their heroic deeds. We should see to it that the campfires of patriotism are kept burning from the hill-tops to serve as beacon lights and to guide the onward steps of the millions yet-to-be. This done, our glorious country will ever continue indivisible, incorruptible and indestructible."

other days. The names given were among those who were leading spirits in Vienna Camp of other days and those mentioned were Col. Milmore Musser, W. L. Questant, Geo. Bauer, Tommie Adams, Will Clayton, P. E. Selby, Nevins Musser, Capt. Billy Williams, Harry Huddleson, L. C. Turley and others.

"It gave me genuine pleasure to read the list of names contained in the Times article. They all come back to me as a happy memory, and I can testify that each of these good fellows did his full share toward the success of the events of interest, an account of many of which never has and furthermore never will find its way into cold type—yes, those events of 'consuming' interest which characterized the good old days down in Scioto county. In justice to the other fellows, it is but fair to say that a certain young cub reporter, whose name it seems altogether unnecessary to mention, was the 'bright and shining star' in the art of plucking big, red, ripe water-melons."

Attention of the Vienna Camp of today is called to the 15th article of war, which makes "moonlight pig-roasting" and sweet potato "raising" high treason to the government of the United States.

TODAY'S WORK.
Today is the time to pursue fortune and to grasp the opportunities at hand. "Tomorrow" is never here, and putting off the good we may have for a questionable future is not the best wisdom. Therefore use today. Do the kindness before you, the duty nearest you, and tomorrow will take care of itself.
